PARENT-TEACHER MEETING

A departmental parent-teacher meeting was held on 09.11.2023 in room no. 103 at 11AM. Dr. Chhabi Rani Panigrahi, Co-ordinator, Mathematics welcomed the parents and their wards and apprised them of the objectives of the meeting. The parents, more so of the newcomers, were enthusiastic about being a part of such a premier institute. They shared their expectations and concerns regarding the academic progress and infrastructural issues of the University. Of complaints regarding the cleanliness of the toilets, Co-ordinator assured the parents to take it up with the committee responsible for campus cleaning. One of the parents wanted to know if rebate in buses could be arranged for the university students. This was noted down as a suggestion and the feasibility of such a concession was to be discussed later with the authorities. Few parents expressed their dissatisfaction over the hostel food. Co-ordinator assured to discuss the same with hostel warden and hostel superintendents. The faculty members were disheartened to know that there is a line of divide between students who have come from Science stream and students who have come from Arts stream. Prof. Rashmi Mishra informed to look into the matter personally and make necessary arrangements to resolve the issue. The parents were shown the attendance of their wards and Co-ordinator Madam made it clear that shortage of attendance will be dealt with strictly. The parents thanked the faculty members for the warm academic atmosphere of the department. They further requested to take measures for coaching the students for CUET and IIT JAM examinations. The Co-ordinator undertook to assign the faculty members the duty to train students. Prof. Rashmi Mishra proposed the vote of thanks and the parents and their wards were served refreshments.
