1. Department Name: MAA RAMA DEVI CHAIR

2. Title of the Event: FIELD VISIT FOR NATIONAL SEMINAR & BOOK PUBLICATION ON “GRASSROOT LEVEL WOMEN FARMER ACHIEVERS OF ODISHA”

3. Type of Event: FIELD VISIT

4. Date & Time: 11/12/25 to 13/12/25

5. Mode of Conduct: Offline

6. Platform Used: Berhampur village in Chilika Lake, Satapada

7. Names of the Researchers: Prof. Sucheta Priyabadini, MRDCP, Ms. Jyotatsi Jangyanseni, RA & Mr. Satyabrata Sahoo, OA.

8. Objective of the Event (1–2 lines): To collect data and information of grass root level women farmers and this time it was fisher-women.

9. Brief Description of the Event (3–5 lines): MRDCP along with the MRDC staff started their journey for Satapada on 11th Dec, 25 at morning 6 a.m. and visited the island of Mahisha-Berhampur in Chilika Lake, Satapada and conducted Focus Group Discussion and in-depth interviews with local fisherwomen and documented their stories. 30 + women farmers were interviewed. Jeeven Rekha Parishad (JRP) who is a collaborator in this has also provided us with ground support by connecting us with the women farmers by organizing meetings.

10. Number of Participants:

- External (if any): 30+

11. Outcome of the Event (1–2 points): We collected information regarding the fishing history and the various issues they face in their lives. We also made efforts to educate them about the use of digital platforms to sell their produce for better income and market access. It was a unique experience being on an island; their stories of resilience, struggle and triumph were different. We also visited their farms, which gave us idea about aquaculture practices involving fish, crab and prawn farming.

12. Feedback Summary (if collected): NA
