

Report on China Visit

Prof Sucheta Priyabadini was invited by Institute of Chindian Studies, Jinan University, Guangzhou, China as a visiting professor for delivering two/three lectures from 9th June 2025 to 15th June 2025 (Invitation Letter attached). Entire program was sponsored by Jinan University, China. No Objection Certificate (NOC) for the proposed trip was issued by the Registrar, RDWU vide letter no 2600 dated 23.4.25.

MRDCP had the opportunity of presenting lectures on “Echoes from the Heartland: Mapping the Lives of India’s Tribal Communities” on 09.6.25 and ‘Silken Threads of Dharma; Buddhist Linkages between China and India (Odisha) on 11.06.25, at Jinan University. During this period, she was also invited by Sun Yat Sen University, Guangzhou, China to deliver a lecture on “Displacement, Development and Praxis of Marxism in Odisha (India),” on 13.6.25. All these talks were also oriented towards the role and impact of women relevant to those subjects.

The presentations were well appreciated by the students, research scholars and faculty members present. They evinced interest in publishing the above talks in Chinese language in their University journal. Prof Xu Changfu, Dean, Institute of Philosophy, Sun Yat Sen, University, discussed with MRDCP the preliminary modalities of collaborating on a project of writing a book on Buddhism and publishing it through Sage publication.

On 11.6.25, Prof. Sucheta Priyabadini was invited by Abbot Xing Guang of Vajradhara temple. She was also invited by Abbot Guangming of Hualin Temple on 13.6.25. This temple was built in 526 AD by Bodhidharma (an Indian Buddhist Scholar). Discussions there centered around Mahayana Buddhism and the connection between Kalinga (Odisha) and China. Both the Abbots expressed their desire to visit Odisha and RDWU. Abott Hualin temple, presented MRDCP, with “Tripitaka,” a collection of Buddhist scriptures consisting of core teachings and philosophy of Buddhist doctrine. This has been donated to the library of RDWU.

There was an informal interaction with Directors and faculty members of Guangdong University of Foreign Studies on 15.6.25, to promote students and faculty exchange programme between GUFS and RDWU.

Professor MRDC left China on 16.6.25, reached Bhubaneswar on 17.6.25 and resumed office accordingly.
