DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, RDWU.

Program Offered: B.A. (Hons.)

Program Outcomes (POs):

1. The student would be in the position to attend various competitive exams in pursuit of job opportunities.
2. Expand the knowledge and understanding of the past, and reflect on the diversity of past human experiences.
3. With the program's completion, the student would grasp the different paradigms of history, its need, and prospects for the future.
4. The divergent courses taught in history would help the student community to revisit their past glory and to preserve it for generations to come.
5. Understand the evolution of human history and the interconnectedness of various cultures and civilizations.
6. Cultivate a broad range of skills that are highly valued by employers, such as the ability to think critically, assess evidence of many kinds, and express ideas with precision. These skills can be transferred to many different careers or provide a grounding for further academic study.
7. The courses on the contemporary history of India and the world help the students to understand global relations and perspectives.
8. They will be able to analyze and evaluate the evidence in its historical and cultural context and use that evidence to build and support an argument.
