Report with photographs on soft skills enhancement programs

In today's dynamic and competitive work environment, possessing technical expertise alone is not sufficient for career advancement. Soft skills, often referred to as interpersonal or people skills, play a crucial role in fostering effective communication, collaboration, and overall success in the workplace. Recognizing the significance of these skills, Rama Devi Women's University is increasingly focusing in Soft Skills Enhancement Programs to empower its girl students with a well-rounded skill set. Some of the key areas of focus and components that the University is focussing are effective communication skills to develop clear and concise communication abilities; team collaboration to foster collaborative and inclusive work culture to strengthen teamwork and cooperation; leadership and emotional intelligence to cultivate leadership qualities and decision-making skills; time management and prioritization to improve organizational and time management skills and to prioritize tasks effectively to maximize productivity; networking and relationship building to enhance networking abilities within and outside the organization and to build and maintain positive professional relationships.

University has collaborated with the organisations such as Centurion University of Technology and Management (CUTM), Bhubaneswar, Nandi Foundation, Hyderabad, FICCI Ladies Organisation (FLO), Bhubaneswar, Concentrix India (P) Ltd. and NASSCOM, New Delhi to impart various skills among the students. Some of the skills imparted by these organisations are on Digital Electronics, Medical Lab Technology, Computer Accountancy and Tally, Animation and Gaming, Retail and Hospitality, Fashion Designing and Garment

Manufacturing, Heritage and Eco-tourism, Python Programming, Digital Marketing, Employability, Entrepreneurship, Interpersonal Relations, Communication, Computer Skills, Corporate Culture, Presentation, Time Management & Leadership and developing future abilities.

Besides, departments also organise various programs at their level. Students are given training and put under the skill-building exercises and role-playing scenarios of the real-world. Photographs and evidence of some of the events are given below:

  - d) Session wise Brief Report:

The seminar began when at 02:00 PM, when esteemed resource person, faculty members and students joined the meeting. The anchor, Astha Mohanty extended a warm welcome to everyone present. Then, she invited the head of the department Dr. Sabat Kumar Digal, to present the welcome address on behalf of the entire department. She welcomed the honourable guest and also expressed gratitude for conducting this seminar for our students. He was followed by Dr. Jayashree Jethy, who introduced Prof. Pradipto Banerjee and Assistant Prof. Rahul Nandi to the students and informed us about their life and achievements in brief.

At first Pradipto Banerjee sir introduced himself. He said that as a girl student we must feel very much proud & honour to get this opportunity to complete our graduation in this university which is one and only women's university all over Odisha. Sir also said that to stick in the business world we need to enhance our learning quality and also ability & attitude, eager to know much about the business world. We need to be very much focused on our work of gaining knowledge. This will not only improve our inner quality but are also useful for our future. For a bright & successful future we need to work very hard so that we can compete in the Business world.

After this, the floor was open to questions and students asked a lot of doubts regarding Business. It showed how curious they were about this topic and also their enthusiasm to start their investment journey. Even Prof. Pradipto Banerjee and Assistant Prof. Rahul Nandi was impressed to see such a great participation and zeal among the students

The interactive session then came to an end. Firstly, the resource person appreciated all the efforts put forward by the entire department to conduct this seminar. In return, Dristi presented a Vote of Thanks to express gratitude and appreciation on behalf of the P. G. Department of Commerce. In her speech, she congratulated our honourable resource person, esteemed faculty members and the students for all their collective efforts in making this event a great success. With that the seminar ended on a good note.

The event was a great success. The students learned a lot from this seminar which would be of great practical use for them. This seminar also helped many others to overcome the fear and preconceived notions about the risks involved in investment.
