

Faculty development programme on “Innovations and Research Trends in Artificial Intelligence” at Banasthali Vidyapith, Rajasthan.

Three faculty members from the participating depts of CURIE programme at Rama Devi Women’s University were nominated to attend a one-week faculty development programme on “Innovations and Research Trends in Artificial Intelligence” at Banasthali Vidyapith, Rajasthan during October 16-21, 2019. The FDP involved various invited lectures, panel discussions by experts in the field of artificial Intelligence (AI), Machine Learning (ML) and Natural Language Processing (NLP).

RDWU faculty members-Dr. Dillip Kumar Bishi (first row, extreme right), Dr. Navneet Kaur (2nd row, 2nd from left) and Dr. Monalisa Jena (2nd Row, extreme right) along with other CURIE beneficiaries attending the FDP at Banasthali Vidyapith, Rajasthan.