Report:

The celebration of WORLD POSTAL DAY was organized by the Media club of the University in collaboration with Dept. Of History, RDWU. The meeting started at 1 pm in room no. 218, Smart Class Room in Academic Building-II, RDWU with student participants.

The resource person arrived at the hall along with the media club members and other faculty members. They were heartily welcomed by the students.

The welcome address was conveyed by Monalisa Jena , Media club Member, RDWU. The resource person, Dr. Ambika Mishra was then handed over the platform to start his presentation.

Dr. Santosh Kumar Biswal started his presentation with the introduction of Postal services and its journey with media communications.

The students shared their views and he added his points around those views to make the session interactive.

The floor was then open to questions and after an engaging question answer session, Dr. Ambika Sankar Mishra finally ended his presentation.

Learning outcome:

It was a great learning experience for all present in the celebration.

Finally, the guest was felicitated and was presented with a sapling as a token of appreciation and respect from the entire department of history.

Risha Mohanty, student of Dept. Of History bestowed the vote of thanks for the event and the program ended on an appreciable note.
